5/ E/1994/12.

1994/218. Operational activities segment of the Economic and Social Council of 1994

At its 4th plenary meeting, on 4 February 1994, the Council decided that the operational activities of the United Nations for international development cooperation segment of its substantive session of 1994 would be of five days' duration and organized as follows:

High-level meeting

Day 1 Introductory statements should deal with, in particular, issues relating to the provision by the Economic and Social Council of cross-sectoral coordination and overall guidance, the monitoring of the division of labour between and cooperation within the United Nations development system and the provision of guidance to the relevant inter-agency coordination systems.

To the extent possible, any written statement should be circulated in advance and any intervention limited to five minutes. Provision should be made for a night session in case of need.

Day 2 Informal dialogue with heads of agencies.

Interventions from delegations should be limited to questions and short comments. Establishing time-limits for such interventions could help the task of the Chairman in maintaining the character of the session as an informal dialogue.

There should be no speakers' lists.

Working-level meetings

Days 3 and 4

In order to implement General Assembly resolutions 47/199 of 22 December 1992 and 48/162 of 20 December 1993, informal discussions should include the following subjects:

(a) Relationship between the Council and the Executive Boards;

(b) Provision of overall guidance by the Council to the funds, programmes and agencies;

(c) Review and evaluation of the reports on the work of the funds and programmes;

(d) Consideration of relevant recommendations of the subsidiary bodies of the Council and other relevant bodies in the light of policies established by the General Assembly, in order to take them into account as appropriate, in the operational activities of the United Nations;

(e) Provision of orientation and the making of recommendations to the relevant inter-agency coordination mechanisms in order to support and enhance their role;

(f) Preparatory work for the triennial policy review of operational activities of the United Nations system, particularly the financing of those activities.

Day 5 Drafting group and conclusion.

In addition to the adoption of any necessary decisions and resolutions, consideration should be given to adopting some form of agreed conclusions to reflect the outcome of the high-level meeting.

1994/219. Elections to subsidiary bodies of the Economic and Social Council and confirmation of representatives on the functional commissions
